Office of Associated Student Government

Resolution 80-12
Inspection Policy
Introduced: 10/21/80

Status: FAILED

Whereas, the Constitution of the United States states that its citizens shall be protected from unlawful search and seizures, and

Whereas, the residents of WKU dorms are subject to room inspections even though the students have not waived their fourth amendment rights in writing, and

Whereas, students are renting rooms from WKU and are considered United States citizens,

Therefore, we the ASG of WKU do hereby request that the housing administration put a stop to this policy of invading the privacy of United States citizens,

Furthermore, no student shall be required or forced to waive their fourth amendment rights.
